Susan Herhold to the Maumee Senior Center!

“About Me :)

I am a proud mom to a blended family of six amazing kids and two wonderful grandkids. As a vegan chef and owner of The Leaf and Seed Food Truck, I have a deep passion for creating delicious plant-based meals that bring people together. When I’m not in the kitchen, I enjoy capturing life’s beauty through photography and cherishing quality time with my family.

As a Maumee resident, I feel a strong connection to my community and have a heartfelt dedication to supporting our senior citizens. I recognize the importance of living our best lives in our golden years, and I am excited to bring my energy and compassion to my role at the Maumee Senior Center.

Life is about nurturing connections, embracing creativity, and giving back to those around us—values I hold close in everything I do”.

You can find Susan helping us with many different tasks at the center from cooking in the kitchen and helping in our office to running programs at the Waterville Library! If you see her, give her a nice warm welcome. We are so excited to have her a part of our MSC family!
